Dear Mrs. Warren:

Your thoughtful letter received here on March 6 reminded me of so many pleasant associations from former days. I met some of the most wonderful people in the world during my days in 4-H Club work in Tennessee. It was in 4-H Club work that I met my wife, the former Sue Traugher, of Springfield, Tennessee, and I received many encouragements to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ.

You will receive the sermons you requested in the next few days. Thank you for writing and may God bless you and your family.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist

Dear John Allen,

I listen to your sermon each Sunday on station WLSM, Nashville, Tenn. and enjoy it very much. I think you are doing a wonderful work and I pray each day that much good may come from it.

I know you are a Tennessee boy, so I feel like I know you.
My daughter knew you in 4-H Club work several years ago. I also read your articles in "Action".

Will you please send me the series "A House Divided Against Itself" also the copy of 20th Century Christian dealing with family life.

May God keep you and yours
from all harm.
a sister in Christ
Lorise Warren
(Mrs. W.B.)
